UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON
[MEDFORD DIVISION]

Hartly Buchanan,

Plaintiff,

v.

Discover Bank,

Defendant.

Case No.

PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Introduction

1. Hartly Buchanan ("Plaintiff"), brings this Complaint for damages, and any other available legal or equitable remedies, resulting from the illegal actions of Discover Bank ("Discover" or "Defendant"), in negligently and/or intentionally contacting Plaintiff on Plaintiff's cellular telephone, in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 et seq. ("TCPA"), thereby invading Plaintiff's privacy. Plaintiff alleges as follows upon personal knowledge as to herself and his own acts and experiences, and, as to all other matters, upon information and belief, including investigation conducted by her attorneys.

2. The TCPA was designed to prevent calls like the ones described within this complaint, and to protect the privacy of citizens like Plaintiff. “Voluminous consumer complaints about abuses of telephone technology – for example, computerized calls dispatched to private homes – prompted Congress to pass the TCPA.” Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 132 S. Ct. 740, 744 (2012).
3. In enacting the TCPA, Congress intended to give consumers a choice as to how creditors and telemarketers may call them, and made specific findings that “[t]echnologies that might allow consumers to avoid receiving such calls are not universally available, are costly, are unlikely to be enforced, or place an inordinate burden on the consumer. TCPA, Pub.L. No. 102–243, § 11.

Toward this end, Congress found that:

[b]anning such automated or prerecorded telephone calls to the home, except when the receiving party consents to receiving the call or when such calls are necessary in an emergency situation affecting the health and safety of the consumer, is the only effective means of protecting telephone consumers from this nuisance and privacy invasion.

Id. at § 12; see also Martin v. Leading Edge Recovery Solutions, LLC, 2012 WL 3292838, at* 4 (N.D. Ill. Aug. 10, 2012) (citing Congressional findings on TCPA’s purpose).

4. Congress also specifically found that “the evidence presented to the Congress indicates that automated or prerecorded calls are a nuisance and an invasion of privacy, regardless of the type of call....” Id. at §§ 12-13. See also, Mims, 132 S. Ct. at 744.
5. As Judge Easterbrook of the Seventh Circuit recently explained in a TCPA case regarding calls similar to this one:

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act ... is well known for its provisions limiting junk-fax transmissions. A less-litigated part of the Act curtails the use of automated dialers and prerecorded messages to cell phones, whose subscribers often are billed by the minute as soon as the call is answered—and routing a call to voicemail counts as answering the call. An automated call to a landline phone can be an annoyance; an automated call to a cell phone adds expense to annoyance.

Soppet v. Enhanced Recovery Co., LLC, 679 F.3d 637, 638 (7th Cir. 2012).

Jurisdiction and Venue

6. This Court has federal question jurisdiction because this case arises out of violation of federal law. 47 U.S.C. §227(b); Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 132 S. Ct. 740 (2012).
7. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the District of Oregon pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1391 because the events giving rise to this lawsuit occurred within this judicial district.

Parties

8. Plaintiff is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a resident of the City of Grants Pass, County of Josephine, State of Oregon.
9. Plaintiff is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (39).
10. Defendant is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a corporation and a “person,” as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (39).
11. At all times relevant, Defendant conducted business in the State of Oregon and in the County of Josephine, within this judicial district.

Factual Allegations

12. Plaintiff signed up for Defendant's credit card ("Credit Card").
13. Plaintiff charged items to the Credit Card. Plaintiff carried a balance on the Credit Cards from month-to-month ("Account").
14. In 2016, Plaintiff began to receive phone calls from Defendant related to her Account from multiple numbers including 8003472683.
15. Plaintiff made multiple requests for Defendant to stop calling her cell phone thereby revoking consent, including but not limited to requests made on or about the end of June and early July.
16. Despite Plaintiff's request Defendant continued to call Plaintiff on Plaintiff's cellular telephone number ending in 8108 via an "automatic telephone dialing system" ("ATDS"), as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1), using an "artificial or prerecorded voice" as prohibited by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A) including calls made on 10/14/2016; 11/4/2016; and 11/25/2016.
17. Some of the calls answered by the Plaintiff and placed by Defendant had: (1) pre-recorded voice message; or (2) a standard pause and gap before a live operator was available. Consequently, many, if not all, of the calls made by Defendant to Plaintiff on her Cellular Phone, were made using an ATDS and/or artificial or prerecorded voice.
18. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff contends that the ATDS used by the Defendant has the capacity to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator.
19. Plaintiff estimates that she has received over fifty (50) calls from the Defendant since she had revoked consent to be called.
20. The telephone number Defendant called was assigned to a cellular telephone service for which Plaintiff incurs a charge for incoming calls pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1).

21. The telephone call constituted a call that was not for emergency purposes as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(i).
22. Plaintiff did not provide Defendant or its agent(s) prior express consent to receive the calls to her cellular telephone for many if not all of the calls received by her, via an ATDS or an artificial or prerecorded voice, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1)(A).
23. The telephone calls by Defendant, or its agent(s), violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1).
24. Through this action, Plaintiff suffered an invasion of a legally protected interest in privacy, which is specifically addressed and protected by the TCPA.
25. Plaintiff was personally affected because she was frustrated and distressed that despite her telling Defendants to stop calling her on her cell phone, Defendants continued to harass Plaintiff with calls using an ATDS.
26. Defendant's calls forced Plaintiff to live without the utility of her cellular phones by forcing Plaintiff to silence their cellular phones and/or block incoming numbers.
